touched off by announcement that the United Kingdom had agreed to increase amounts paid for some Canadian meats.

President H. H. Hannan of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture told an Ontario Federation of Agriculture meeting here that his organization would welcome a royal commission investigation into farm prices, taxes and business returns.

He added that if consumers want low food prices, they will have to have them only by "discriminating against food producers."

Support for the proposal of a government investigation into food price controls came from spokesmen for many Dominion trades unions.

THE OTTAWA Consumers' Association last night suggested a national plebiscite on price controls. The association also is pressing for reimplementation of the excess profits tax which lapsed Dec. 31.

The emergency import control board has decided to maintain the ban on United States vegetables for some time, it was announced in Montreal.

Could Not Agree

EDMONTON, Jan. 8.—(CP)—Failure of the committee and the donors to reach a mutual understanding has forced the Ontario Bank of Commerce to reluctantly turn down Lord Beaverbrook's offer to contribute $100,000 towards the cost of a modern ink for the University of New Brunswick.

CHAIRMAN, Chairman of the committee, said yesterday that it was understood that Lord Beaverbrook plans to build an artificial ink for the University of New Brunswick.

eight times in overall height, equivalent to the usual two-story structure.

While construction of the new building is proceeding, the bank will continue business at its present site with operations alternating between the annex at the rear and the main building. The annex will be demolished first.

MR. KEAR said it would be impossible to give even a remote approximation of the cost of the new building.

"Anything I might say as to cost would be like the windmill of the Jordan river," he said.

The new bank will be fully modern in every respect, and will be a dollar-a-year building.

The relative quality of let-ting and other goods products came up at a press conference when a reporter noted that a head of lettuce at present cost for 33 cents in some Canadian cities was the price likely to go higher?

Yes, it likely would, the minister replied, and if he owned a greenhouse, "I think I would plant, with lettuce just now."

But getting back to the food quality of turnips, "When I was a boy," the minister said, "I never tasted lettuce from fall until spring and we got along very well without it, eating such other delicious vegetables as turnips, squash and beets."

A foreign office spokesman said action "to protect property national" would be surprising. (This conversation could include incidents of American Civil War).

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The United States Navy is so short of ratings that it could not put both the giant aircraft carriers to sea without borrowing from other ships.

Spague told a reporter that a "tremendous turnover" in enlisted personnel has brought down to 32,000 from last July's peak of 45,000, and the low point still ahead.

Abbott Gives His Views On Value Fresh Vegetables

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(CP)—Canada's Finance Minister, Douglas Abbott, outlined for reporters today the virtues of such home-grown vegetables as turnips and beets, and expressed the opinion that Canadians this winter won't feel the loss of such imported "luxury" vegetables as lettuce, imports in every city, and a dollar-a-year building.

was of a nature which would allow the king to find a solution to the royal problem within the limits of the government's declaration of last March.

The declaration in which the king's return to the throne, and Social Christians, the king's support, was announced.

The declaration said a solution to the royal problem would be sought and found "in accordance with the country's national institutions and by an accord of the nation's political parties."

In Rotterdam, the newspaper Het Dagblad reported today that King Leopold will leave Switzerland shortly for Cuba.

Winnipeg Lawyer

Condemns Increased Government Invasion

True freedom can only be enjoyed when every citizen has the right to freely trade or sell his services. When this right is taken from him he becomes the agent or employee of government. W. H. Fillmore, K.C., Winnipeg lawyer, stated at the 11th annual show of Edmonton's Roller Canary and Type Bird Society, Sunday, Jan. 3, that he condemned the increased invasion of the economic field by government.

Mr. Fillmore was the guest speaker at the banquet held Thursday evening at the Macdonald hotel for members of the Law Society of Alberta attending the annual meeting. The Edmonton Law Society were hosts to visiting lawyers from the following jurisdictions at the gathering.

Opening his remarks Mr. Fillmore said there had been a great amount of agitation in the press and by organizations concerning a personal bill of rights. He did not see any pressing need for this bill of rights, and was of the opinion that in their concern over it a greater danger of increased invasion by government in the nation's economic field.

This invasion, he said, was gradually narrowing the field of private enterprise and the liberties of the people. He said the government had embarked on a program of planned economy which was destroying the personal liberty of the people, because when they were deprived of their right to trade they lost their liberty.

True freedom, he asserted, can only be enjoyed when citizens have the right to trade. When government usurps this right the people are reduced to mere agents of the government.

HE SUBMITTED that from a constitutional point of view the British North America act does not contemplate that government engage in business. The act does not contemplate that government have the power to legislate for peace, order and good government in time of

For RCAF Homes Housing Plan Lease Likely If Terms Met

Provided the Dominion government is prepared to make substantial payments toward educational costs the proposal to lease 23 acres in the vicinity of the airport to the department of national defence as a site for 50 homes for RCAF personnel will be accepted by city council.

At a meeting of the bylaws committee Thursday afternoon, council agreed in principle to the acceptance of the proposition, but stressed that substantial grants must be made by the Dominion government towards the educational costs of children domiciled in these homes.

Previously four of the five aldermen sitting on the finance committee had intimated agreement with the proposal.

Details of the agreement, and the question of educational cost payments will be discussed by the commissioners with Dominion officials before seeking election to the city council.

The committee deferred action on the matter pending the outcome of the Dominion government's offer to the city commissioners on the attitude of the Dominion government to the proposed legislation.

City Solicitor T. E. Garvie, K.C., informed committee members that council would be asked to ratify an amendment to the city charter which would prohibit a candidate for public office from being a member of the Dominion government.

Business Loans To Vets Reach 306

Business and professional loans to 306 veterans have been issued to the end of December for the establishment of 88 different kinds of businesses, according to an announcement by J. W. Proctor, district administrator, Department of Veterans Affairs on Thursday.

The committee deferred action on the matter pending the outcome of the Dominion government's offer to the city commissioners on the attitude of the Dominion government to the proposed legislation.

The largest expenditure was for $2,666.38, had gone into furniture in northern Alberta, with the next greatest amount called for $2,623.83 for the purchase of tools and equipment.

SPORTS

HAROLD DEAN, Sports Editor

THERE can be no quarrel with the choice of Barbara Ann Scott, just named Canada's outstanding woman athlete for 1987. Her win of the world's skating crown was the greatest individual achievement by any Canadian man or woman, during the past century.

Although nothing can detract from Barbara's fine performance, the mention of it always will recall that attitude of a few small-minded amateur authorities which prevented the courageous little lady from accepting the new yellow ribbon crown—an award from appreciative Ottawa fellow citizens.

And at a time when candidates for awards in various phases of athletic endeavor are being announced, it seems quite appropriate that some sort of a prize should be allotted for the year's greatest honor. It must be admitted, of course, there could be little competition for such an award so long as Avery Brundage remains in the neighborhood.

Hard to Reconcile Two Situations

IT ALWAYS has intrigued this corner how an attitude—allegedly springing from only the purest and highest amateur ideals—could prevent a girl from accepting a free will offering from a grateful home city for outstanding athletic attainment, and then countenance the raising of several thousand dollars to send the same girl back overseas for a repeat performance—with Olympic laurels merely an additional target.

In view of the petty bickering, lobbying and ill-feeling engendered by the Brundage Clique in recent weeks, there seems very little doubt of the coming Olympic Games' serving any useful purpose. The whole undertaking is beginning to look like a wasted effort, even forgetting the expenditure of many thousands of dollars which might be put to better use at home.

What the Games will cost Canada, nobody will ever know, but the entire bill is bound to run into six figures. Staging the Olympics at getting the athletes there and back is the year's greatest honor, while it is all very nice to acknowledge athletic prowess and dispatch worthy representatives overseas in search of ribbons, the price does seem rather high.

CAHA Handling Problem Deftly

AND while it is no immediate concern of Canada that one U.S. Olympic hockey squad is about to embark for Europe, with another preparing to sail shortly, it does seem something is lacking in a set-up which could permit a cautious situation to develop.

The Brundage attitude is a reminder of the small boy who refused to play with his mates unless they conformed to his rules, but the man's persistence in enforcing his own view on all and sundry must be admitted.

Fortunately Canada, thanks to prompt action and financial assistance of CAHA, has been able to sit more or less, in the role of observer, while the Brundage clique has been sending that measure by the Olympic amateur yardstick, all CAHA funds must surely be tainted.

And just in passing it is odd Olympic heads would countenance CAHA's delaying the cost of the team overseas, seeing that measure by the Olympic amateur yardstick, all CAHA funds must surely be tainted.

World Tournament More Promising

NO official statement seems to have come from authoritative quarters as to the extent of the Province of Alberta's contribution to the Olympic fund, but it is understood to have been $2,000.

And one report some months ago was that the Dominion government had been approached for a grant of some $25,000 or thereabouts, but presumably the full amount has not been advanced. Thousands, of course, have been collected in various communities across the country.

It might be this money might have been put to better use in promoting good, clean athletics amongst Canada's younger citizens. Recent developments would indicate it is high time Olympic hockey be forgotten and it might also be an elegant idea to relegate the whole Canada Olympic to the role of a very costly matter and, if not concerned, the world tournament now being considered—one in which playing ability and spectator appeal would count for something and where a few dollars in prize money or otherwise, would not be at issue—seems to hold more promise.

Charming and Unspoiled

Barbara Ann Voted Top Woman Athlete

TORONTO, Jan. 9.—(CP)—Port Barbara Ann Scott, Canada's chief hope for a victory in the winter Olympics, may find her encouragement in a new achievement. Canadian sports editors, noted as a dissonant brood, agreed unanimously that the world figure skating champion was the Dominion's outstanding woman athlete of 1987.

The pretty Ottawa native, who repaid in French to his official, Fimpe preparing for the Olympic test, received 72 of a possible 72 points in The Canadian Press year-end sports poll and won the award for the second consecutive year. Her two-time triumph matches the skating world champion and Rhonda field for third with Irene Stirling, Vancouver swimmer, who received only one point in the poll. Voters named 1982 and 1981.

Two other Olympic hopefuls—the skater, Wurfle, ranked third and three places behind Rhonda and Rhonda 23. A year ago Rhonda placed second and Rhonda field for third with Irene Stirling, Vancouver swimmer, who received only one point in the poll. Voters named 1982 and 1981.

Barbara Ann won two fresh titles, and consequently defended another in 1987. She took the European and world championships and held the world title. She also won the Canadian title. She returned her Canadian title after three consecutive victories, being unable to get back from her overseas triumph in time to compete.

SHE became the outstanding figure skater of the Dominion wherever she went, she was greeted with a hero's welcome. Her native Ottawa gave her a hero's welcome. Her native Ottawa gave her a hero's welcome. Her native Ottawa gave her a hero's welcome.

EAC and Maple Leaf Juveniles Take Tilts

EACs consolidated their position at the City Juniors Hockey League ladder last night, squeezing out a hard fought 2-1 victory over South Side at the South Side rink. Playing at 119 street, Maple Leafs racked up their first triumph of the season, edging Canadians 6-5 in a thriller.

The results left EACs solidly on top of the league standings with 14 points, eight better than the Phantoms. The Canadians, who have lost all four of their last five games, are now in last place.

League-Leading EAC's Stopped In 4-2 Upset

Bob Gillies' Canadians pecked at the EAC's stone-wall defence last night, and after locating the weak link breezed to their first victory of the season, dumping the pace-setters 4-2 in a City Juniors Hockey League thriller.

It was the first defeat handed the Chalmers in their last eight starts. In assuming the "Giant Killer" role, Canadians built up a 2-1 margin in the opening stanza, gave up a power play in the sandwich session, and then tallied only the goal of the night.

HOWEVER, before emerging victors, the "Rednecks" were forced to throw his last luck to take the extra end. Robertson did not need to throw his last luck to take the extra end.

Thirty representatives attended the one-day conference in the Macdonald hotel Thursday of General Motors Dealer Service Managers of Northern Alberta.

D. E. Hutchings, Regina, western service manager, was conference chairman. W. Ledington, Edmonton, is field service organizer for Northern Alberta.

There is a 50 per cent increase in all of Alberta in the supply of parts and replacement for 1947 compared with 1946, said Mr. Hutchings. He also stated the supply is still far short of the demand for repairs.

The General Motors product conference was held to discuss current problems in providing cars and trucks in order to provide better service to the public.

HAROLD J. GUNNING

Harold J. Gunning To Manage Lodge

Appointment of Harold J. Gunning as manager of Jasper Park Lodge in the Canadian Rockies was announced in Ottawa today by Robert Somerville, general manager of hotels, Canadian National Railways.

Mr. Gunning has been connected with hotel operations for nearly twenty years during which he has been identified particularly with summer resorts. Born at Montreal in 1911, he joined the staff of the Mount Royal Hotel there in 1929 as a clerk after having spent several summer seasons working in resort hotels at Old Orchard Beach, Maine, and the Seignior Club.

In January, 1933, Mr. Gunning became assistant manager at the Chateau Laurier in Ottawa, and in June of that year moved to Jasper Park Lodge at a similar position. He held this position during the summer seasons, returning to the Chateau Laurier as assistant manager during the winter months until August, 1942, when he enlisted with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps. He was commissioned in 1943 and later promoted to the rank of captain, serving both in Canada and overseas until his discharge in December, 1945. He returned to the post of assistant manager at the Chateau Laurier, and on the re-opening of Jasper Park Lodge in the summer of 1946 he again moved there as assistant manager.

Mr. Gunning succeeds John P. Stark who resigned from the Canadian National hotel service to accept the position of assistant manager of the Terminal City Club, Vancouver.

Popularity of Love-Birds Shows Spectacular Rise

By DOLORES KIMBALL

Among our five-feathered friends the bird kingdom one of the most luxuriously plumed and talented is the budgerigar or lovebird. Several are featured at the 19th annual bird show sponsored by the Edmonton Roller, Canary and Type Bird Society at the IOOF hall, 103 street, this week. More than 175 birds, including lovebirds, canaries, and yellow of the roller variety and a large group of brilliantly-hued lovebirds are entered in the show.

Frank Taylor of Portland, Ore., is judging the roller canaries and Alfred Shanks of Jasper is judging the budgerigars. The show will be open to the public Saturday and the judges will lecture on care and training of canaries.

There has recently been a phenomenal rise in popularity of the budgerigar as a household pet. Originally a green bird in its wild state, it is now bred and exhibited in a variety of beautiful colors.

John A. Bull, Clondalton district youth, pleaded guilty in district court Friday before Judge P. McKee to nine charges of uttering forged checks, and one charge of attempting to obtain goods by false pretences. He was remanded for sentence on his own recognizance for four months.

Bull passed the checks at city department stores for four months. He passed the checks at the value of $216. Restitution of $108 was made, and the accused expected to make further restitution during the remainder of the term. He was committed to the reformatory for the balance of the term as he expected his parents to back the charges.

The regular meeting of West Jasper Place Home and School Association scheduled for Friday at the school will not be held. Time and place of the postponed meeting will be announced later.

102,500 Sold to Date

Alberta's motorists, during the current license year, have required 7,500 more plates than they did last year and hit a new high record of 102,500, it was learned from R. C. Murray, deputy provincial secretary on Friday. There are still three months to go in the license year, but few new plates will be called for before the end of March.

The new 1948 licenses are expected in Edmonton sometime in January and will be dispatched to the various issuing agencies on receipt. Sales of them will be commenced as soon as possible after March 15.

Alta. Mines Act Undergoes Review

The Alberta Mines Act and possible amendments to it are being studied on Friday and Saturday, at meetings being held in the Legislative Buildings between mine operators, union officials and government representatives.

Among government officials at the meeting are John Crawford, chief inspector of mines and J. Harvie, deputy minister of lands and forests. Officials of the Western Canada Bituminous Coal Operators and of the Domestic Coal Operators also are in attendance.

Prepare Amendments, Estimates for Session

Minister's offices in the provincial government are now busy preparing estimates and amendments to legislation for the session due to commence Feb. 19, it was learned in a survey of the offices on Friday.

NO SUGGESTION was released as to terms of the amendments to be proposed.

There will be "large number of amendments to the School Act," said H. Earl Anley, but, added that most of the new regulations were of a minor nature and admitted that some of them were important.

Introduction of the bill in connection with the prepay hospital or Blue Cross plan might be decided by Hon. Dr. W. W. Crag, minister of public health, but no decision had been reached as yet, Dr. Crag said. Minor amendments to health and welfare legislation were being considered.

A PRIVATE BILL will be introduced at the session to incorporate Medical Service (Alberta), according to advertisements appearing in newspapers and official government publications. This is a project backed by the Alberta College of Physicians and Surgeons for prepaid medical care.
